Mr. Verkes Stands for Assassination.

The following is an extract from Gov. Beckman's speech, delivered at Litchfield, on the 10th instant:

"My distinguished opponent, Mr. Verkes, can not escape responsibility for the platform he stands on. He can not divert the public mind from the real issue and concentrate it on the election law. Why, at Bowling Green stood a platform with a picture of a fugitive from justice on his right hand and Holland Whitaker, under indictment for conspiracy to assassinate, on his left."

"He'd make a nice Governor, wouldn't he?" called a Democrat derisively.

"If you read Verkes' speech you will see he says the Democrats hold the Republican party responsible for the assassination of Gov. Goebel. The Republicans might as well have held the Democratic party responsible for the defalcation of Tate. Four years ago Verkes and others went stamping over the State, making Tate's defalcation almost the only issue, and at the same time demanding a look at the books. It is within the memory of the youngest voter here that the Democrats did what could be apprehended Tate and bring him back to face the charges against him. He found it necessary to go further than Taylor to defend his accusers. Did you hear of any Democratic platform indorsing that defalcation? Did you hear of any Democrat in private or on the stump upholding that steal? I think not.

"How is it about the Republican platform? That platform indorses those who stood accused and indicted for the assassination of Gov. Goebel.

That party, or its representatives, has done everything within its power to shield and protect those who stood thus accused. We claim the right to hold that party responsible for the murder of William Goebel.

We say no Democrats were brought up to prove that they had been brought up to vote on election day. Do you think there is any man who was frightened from voting would admit it? The threat of a partisan Republican Judge was standing before us; the instructions of that Judge to Federal Marshals to watch Democrats and not Republicans confronted us. Have you heard of that Judge calling any Republicans before him to answer for fraud? You have not heard of him calling a single Republican before him."

Gov. Beckman then reviewed the doings of the army of intimidation, "bristling with guns and pistols like an arsenal," the action of the Legislature, chased about the streets like cattle, the verdicts of the courts, Circuit Court of Appeals and Court of last resort, all decided in favor of the Democratic contention. As he proceeded his remarks were punctuated by "Hurrah for Beckman," "Hit 'em again, Beckman," "Hurrah for our young Governor," "Stick to 'em, Governor," "Morley misrule?" he asked.

"Do you want a repetition of Republican misrule?" he asked.

"No, no, we don't. We've had enough of that," came from all parts of the audience.

"The Republicans said they wanted a look at the books. They looked at the books, but they didn't find a single account. We have had a look at the books ourselves. We have a record of $80,000 stolen to keep.

"We found of murdered, up in Frankfort.

Bright Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

READ HIS EDITORIAL.

From the Times, Hillside, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost desisted to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonial stating how some wonderous results had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a pale and heavy man to day and feel as well as I ever did in my life.

"Like a Beast of the Field."

—Courier-Journal.

Caleb Powers kicks up a muss and a fuss because he was handcuffed when transferred from the Georgetown to the Louisville jail. Caleb howls, "I want you to say that you found me handcuffed like a beast of the field."

This, too, after I told my guard that I would give them my word that I would make no attempt to escape."

Just how a beast of the field is handcuffed is an unsolved mystery ranking alongside the assassination of Governor Goebel. In fact, a handcuffed beast of the field would be a considerable circus.

Why should Caleb Powers object to handcuffs? He is a convicted assassin.

Why should he not be treated as any other felon convicted of a capital crime? When he was indicted as an accessory before the fact to the assassination of Governor Goebel, he disclaimed and armed himself and attempted to escape. When he was captured after a desperate resistance, a pardon from W. S. Taylor was found in his pocket.

He was arraigned in a court of justice, tried and convicted of an offense, the most infamous of all—a man of all save one, in the hall of a state of crime.

He was transferred to the Louisville jail to prevent either escape or rescue.

He was treated exactly as any other criminal would have been treated—neither worse nor better. He was not entitled to any special privileges for the assassination of Governor Goebel, and he did not receive them.

Why should Caleb Powers not be handcuffed "like a beast of the field?"—Glasgow Times.

An Answer.

No better reply to Mr. McKinley's letter can be found than the attitude of a former adherent of the President.

That the Maryland campaign should have opened with United States Senator Wellington, until recently the acknowledged leader of Maryland Republicanism, on the Democratic side is significant of a change of sentiment in that State which should produce some startling surprises at the polls.

The opposition to imperialism which has led Senator Wellington to forfeit his high rank in the Republican party is shared, it is safe to assert, by many other Republicans in his State.

The double dealing by Mr. McKinley tricked Senator Wellington into casting the deciding vote for the Philippines, giving a promise of just dealing with the Filipinos which was afterwards deliberately broken, will be resented by that eminent American's friends and followers as it was by Senator Wellington himself.

As Mr. Bryan pointed out in his speech at the opening of the Maryland campaign in Cumberland, following Senator Wellington's own speech renouncing his allegiance to McKinley's Republicanism, the Maryland leaders are purely patriotic stand. It is not for money that they enlisted under the Democratic standard. It is not for honors—his own party in its nobler days had satisfied his ambitions in that direction. "It is his belief," said Mr. Bryan, "that his country is in peril; it is his belief that the course which the Republican party is pursuing tends directly toward the repudiation of those principles of government which every party advanced until within three years." In other words, Senator Wellington rightly holds his Americans above his Republicans; his duty to his country higher than his duty to his party.

They yielded only when they could no longer hold out, and then they fled to Indiana. Since then a number of Republican Governors have come to power by the aid of the McKinley guidance.

Under it, "any" is applying the Republican party to the loyalty of its members.

It is asking them, "Can you and your country stand by this man?"

When leaders in a decadent party are thus seen abandoning that party because they cannot follow in its evil ways, it is safe to believe that many more will do the same.

"And so are similarly of the ranks of the anti-McKinley guidance.

All these things were well-known to the Republicans of Kentucky when they met in State Convention. Yet they congratulated the "obligion party" on "the efforts of Gov. Taylor," well known to be the efforts of the anti-McKinley guidance.

"We have never had the least doubt of the authorship of your editorials—they are about your size. But do you think we are inferior to you in point of learning or ability?" Why, then, do you think that our articles are written by some one else?"

The above closes an article in last week's issue of The Columbia Spectator, directed at the editor of The News. Mr. W. D. Jones is the reputed editor of said Spectator and for the last few issues of that paper its editorial columns have been working in opposition to our position in the Powers case. Last Friday, however, Mr. Jones, the editor, called at the News office and left word, to be delivered to us, that he was not the author of the articles; that they were written in his absence; that he did not endorse newspaper controversies in but one way—a pleasant discussion of the issues. This is as we believed. We did not believe that Mr. Jones was doing the editorial act, but the articles came as editorials—the product of his own brain, and we were compelled to hold him accountable. Mr. Jones stands high in educational circles; he is our present Superintendent of public schools, and therefore we believed him capable of better articles. Since the last article the Spectator stands without father or mother we have no more to say, as the orphan is a subject of pity.

Mr. Bryan will speak in Louisville the night of the 6th of October.

An old time Democratic barbecue will be given at Bardstown Saturday, October 6th.

Hon. Vincent Boreing failed to preach his "Civil Liberty" here Monday. What a pity.

Saturday's Courier-Journal reported that 2,701 of the Galveston dead had been identified, and that the number of victims will reach five thousand.

Last Friday night from eight to nine thousand people heard Gov. Beckham and Congressman Wheeler at Bowling Green. It was the largest political meeting ever held in the Third district.

There are not one dozen national tickets in the field. About half dozen of the tickets are supported only by the men who are on the ticket, hence they will certainly be lost in the fog.

Golden Rule Jones, who polled 107,000 votes in Ohio last year as an independent candidate for Governor, has come out for Bryan. Mr. Jones is now the Mayor of Toledo, and has a strong following in Ohio.

It is said that Jim Howard holds a pardon, dated the 30th day of January, the very day that Mr. Goebel was shot, which shows conclusively that Taylor was the chief conspirator of the whole gang of murderers.

The city of Louisville, always ready to lend a helping hand to suffering humanity, gave $10,000 to the Galveston destitute. Besides the gift of the city private subscriptions to the amount of several hundred dollars were sent.

Mr. Bryan opened the Ohio Democratic campaign at Columbus last Friday night. Fifteen thousand people heard him. It is said that at the opening of the Republican campaign the week before, by Mark Hanna, not more than three thousand were present.

Hon. John Rhys states positively that an attempt was made to assassinate him as he was leaving Morgantown one evening last week. The murderer in Butch county is congenial to "ru flan nism." It is the home of Holloman Whitaker and the late abiding place of W. S. Taylor, who is now sheltering under the wings of Mount of Olives.

The most successful way to conduct a canvass is to keep in the saddle, day and night, fearing defeat at all times. Candidates who run like defeat is staring them in the face generally get to the pole first.

It is the over sanguine that invariably gets left.

In the present canvass to reduce the Republican majority in the Eleventh district every Democrat should be a worker in the field, and by so doing the full strength of the party will be gotten out.

It is confidently believed that Mr. Cleveland will write a letter during the month of October, stating that he is opposed to imperialism and that he will support Mr. Bryan for the Presidency. A majority of his late cabinet have already stated that they would support the Democratic National ticket, and a letter from Mr. Cleveland would have much weight. Mr. Carlisle has not yet written a letter, but he has stated that he is opposed to Mr. McKinley.

Last Monday Hon. John W. Lewis, of Springfield, made a speech in this town in defense of "Civil Liberty." We did not hear his entire speech, but judging from what we did hear we feel safe in saying that the Republican party is no stronger and not a whit wiser by reason of said speech. He was introduced by Hon. H. C. Baker, a late addition to "Civil Liberty." Mr. Lewis is well known in Congress and in this section, hence a lengthy statement if what he said is unnecessary.

Mr. W. P. Walton, editor of the Interior Journal, Stanford, will be the editor-in-chief of the new Democratic daily which starts at Lexington in a few days. He is a splendid writer, a gentleman of deep learning, and a Democrat in whom there is no guile.

The company could not have a better selection for the head of the editorial department. There will be no change in the management of the Interior Journal, Mr. Ed Walton keeping up the brightness of its pages during the remainder of his term.

Mr. Shely Vanboy and wife, of Campbellsville, were visiting the family of S. S. Vanboy Saturday and Sunday.

The Republican county papers are sending out supplements furnished by their State Campaign Committee in order to enlighten the voter on the great question of expansion and to show reason why he should approve the present game of conquest by furnishing a map of the United States which shows that the entire country west of the Mississippi was acquired through the efforts of the Democratic Administrations at various times, partly by conquest and partly by purchase, also the acquisition of Florida and the Gulf country. We cannot see a better argument in favor of our side of the present muddle than that outlined in their map.

We cannot see why intelligent men would put out such an argument to sustain the acts of the present administration, but wise men make mistakes as well as those who possess less wisdom. The map merely shows that each time the Democrats acquired territory that it was an addition to the States, that it was not 6,000 miles away from home but adjacent to and apart of this country fashioned for our people. It shows that all the above mentioned territory was secured by Democratic administrations, if true; then who made this government what it is? The Democrats believe in expansion but not imperialism, they believe in securing desirable territory to become the homes of their own people but they do not endorse the importation of foreign lands and enslaving their people. They believe that the constitution should go with the flag.

We were directed last week, by the Democratic Campaign Committee, to announce that Hon. T. W. Simms would address the voters of Adair on Monday, but Mr. Simms failed to appear. We do not wish to disappoint hundreds of Democrats through the news in such a manner, and the Campaign Committee should not impose upon us by asking such announcements made unless it is known the appointments will be filled. If the Committee wishes to ignore this section it can do so, but every true Democrat will do his duty just the same. It doesn't require the spell-binders to put determination or Democracy into our people. We have it already, but a few good speeches would be enjoyable.

Hon. Jas. B. McCreary, Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee, met Mr. Bryan in Chicago last week, and learned from that gentleman that he would make a number of speeches in Kentucky during the month of October. No definite time for Mr. Bryan's coming has been arranged, but it will be between the 6th and 10th of the month. Other national speakers who will visit Kentucky are Mr. Stevenson, Congressman Champ Clark, Hon. Chas. A. Towne, Hon. B. Benton McMillin, Congressman DeArmond, Senator Hill and Hon. Bourke Cockran.

Ex-Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, enjoys the reputation of a close and conservative political observer, is in Washington. When asked his opinion of the situation he said: "The Democrats are now making steady gains. They are gaining strength every day in New York, in Ohio, in Indiana—in fact all over the country. If the election occurred to-day the Democratic vote would be larger than it would have been yesterday. This far, I think there has been no day when we were not stronger than the day before. Such a condition surely promises well for success."

There was a social at Mr. Jas. Coffey's one last week. A large crowd was present and an enjoyable time spent.

Mack, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Pelly, died of typhoid fever last Sunday. He was a boy of 12 years. His father called his family to his bedside one by one and told them to prepare to meet him in Heaven, and not to grieve for him as he was going to Heaven to meet his brother Willie, who predeceased him ten months ago. He leaves a wife and two children, besides many relatives to mourn his loss. The entire community extends sympathy to the bereaved ones.

The Campaign Committee of this county is organizing the county into Bryan and Beckam clubs, and in a few days every club will have a working club. The party in this county is better organized even now than it has been for years. The result will be a good ticket.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continuing in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50¢ guaranteed at T. E. Paull's drug store.

United Americans.

It is becoming apparent that the true American spirit is aroused by the peril now menacing the government. No matter what arguments of fool may be advanced to tempt us to rule the Filipinos by force against their will, we have been too long taught as Americans that "constitutional governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed" to sanction a sin so surely destructive of our national integrity. No matter what selfish reasons may be urged for the continued denial to the Porto Ricans of their rights under the constitution—a denial based upon the theory that the American flag waves over that island as a colony, not as an integral part of the United States—

we know as Americans that "a republic can have no colonies," and as for the remarkable necessitated fact of attempting to exist as a republic on the American mainland while ruling as an empire in the Philippines and Porto Rico, every American knows in his soul that this government "can not exist half republic and half empire."

It is for these good and valid American reasons that the Democrats, the populists, the silver Republicans and the anti-imperialist league are now drawing closer together for the great fight of 1900. It is life and death fight. The existence of the government is dependent upon its issue. The slogan of the united assault on the plotters for empire is "Save the Republic."—St. Louis Republic.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Cataract. Hall's Cataract Cure is the only positive cure known now to the medical fraternity. Cataract being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Cataract Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENey & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. He'll Family Pills are the best.

Col. Turner Dead.

A special from Mt. Sterling, dated September 11th, says: Ex-Congressman Thomas Turner died to-day at noon of general debility after a lingering illness. His death had been hourly expected for several weeks, but the distinguished lawyer and statesman clung to life with that tenacity that has been characteristic of his whole career. During his last moments he was surrounded by his entire family with the exception of his son, Thomas, who is sick of yellow fever in Havana, Cuba. The death of Col. Turner has caused great sorrow in this city, where he was loved by all who knew him.

A Thousand Tongues.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of Philadelphia, when Dr. King's New Discovery cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. She says: "After all other remedies and doctors failed it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed to cure all troubles of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50¢ and $1. Trial bottles free at T. E. Paull's drug store.

Many may dare to do in crowds what they would not do to as individuals, but the moral character of an act is not determined by the number of those who join it. Forces can defend a right, but force has never yet created a right.—W. J. Bryan.

Some of our young sports are spending more money on their girls in a month than they will in a year after they marry them.

Shirt Waist For Men.

For several years the women have had a monopoly of the shirt waist business, but they have been found so nice, so cool and so comfortable, that the men have concluded to wear them, too. While it is true the style has not struck Bardstown as yet, there is no doubt that by next summer they will be worn by all who want to keep cool. The men of New York are wearing them and it will take only a few months for the style to get here.

Or course it would look just a little odd to see this innovation, but it is coming. By next summer we will all be wearing them. We expect to see Judge Daugherty on the bench with his shirt waist, while the lawyers and clients will have on the same kind of garments. We are just a little anxious to know which one of our preachers will be the first to appear in his pulpit with the regulation shirt waist on.

Is so hot we are ready for our shirt waist now. While we hesitate to be the first one in the town to try the innovation, yet we stand ready with our paper to defend the innovator and also pledge him our word that if he is not mobbed, we shall follow in his foot steps just as soon as we can find one of the garments and are able to raise the price of the thing. We love the shirt waist woman and we shall respect the shirt waist man.—Nelson Report.

Blarney's Iron Nerve.

Was the result of his splendid health indomitable will and tremendous energy not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order? If you want these qualities and the pluck they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Only 25 cents at T. E. Paull's drug store.

The Japan every abled-bodied man is a soldier, and even the children know the use of arms. Military drill is a part of the regular education in the schools throughout the empire. School boys dress in a military uniform cut on the pattern of cadet uniforms in Europe and America. Their instructors are regular army officers, veterans of the war with China, and some of them the Satsuma rebellion of 1877. This has its effect on the youth mind, ever prone to hero worship, and trebly so in Japan.

A petition has been circulated in Campbellsville which will be filed at Frankfort asking for the release from the penitentiary of Henry Barsfield, the negro who killed Henry Buckner, another negro in the colored portion of Campbellsville last year, and who was sentenced to two years in the State penitentiary at the January term of the circuit court. Many colored people here hope if he is released, he will not return to Campbellsville. They don't sleep well when Henry is in the neighborhood.—Times-Journal.

Owen Banks, a very popular young gentleman of Cave Valley, has sold his interest in the store at that place and accepted a position with the Boot and Shoe house Vogel Bros. & Co., Louisville. Mr. Banks is a hustling young business man and we predict for him much success in his new departure in business.—Times Journal.

A British engineer says that in experimenting with wireless telegraphy he found it possible to convey the voice six or eight miles without the use of wires.

Ex-President Cleveland has declined President McKinley's appointment as a member of the International Board of Arbitration. Ex-President Harrison accepted.

It is to be noted that the Cubans will be permitted to just reach the verge of national independence by November 8—and that's all.
